

As a child, Julie started speaking to anyone who would listen. A natural born teacher, she started her career as a high school English teacher and now shares her love for teaching and Christ at Hermitage Hills Baptist Church in Nashville.

A seasoned speaker, Julie has spoken at large national events, including a main stage appearance at direct sales company Stampin' Up's Annual Leadership Conference. She also is a regular contributor to Nashville-based lifestyle show, Talk of the Town.

Currently, she has partnered with the pastoral team at her church providing the congregation with a woman's point of view during a sermon series on marriage. Julie is in the fourth year of leading a weekly women's bible study and a Sunday morning life group, along with being a MOPS mentor mom.

A passionate and highly entertaining speaker, Julie is available to speak to your group on a variety of topics.

My Story

I'm Julie Salva, a Jesus-loving girl. He's saved me from myself so many times. The fact that He not only loves me, but He delights in me (Zeph 3:17), is almost more than my Southern girl heart can bear. The next loves of my life are my husband of 25 years, Mark and my 17-year-old son, Matt. I won't get into how my other love is the Florida State Seminoles, but that's where this sorority girl met her football player.

I believe that my sarcasm may be a spiritual gift and I find fun in the smallest things. To say I'm not your typical Southern girl Christian speaker...would be an understatement. I'm a former high school teacher with a passion for World War Two history, crime/spy novels and the pop culture goodness of People magazine and Project Runway. In short, I have a unique zest for life that God has called me to share and who I am to say no?

Julie's Signature Presentations

Julie enjoys working with ministry leaders to design an event that meets your audience wherever they are. Some of her favorite topics include the following:

What Does Freedom Look Like?

Have you ever been told that God wants you to be free? Have you ever wondered “how”? Julie shares her story of how a “Jesus Lovin’, Bible teaching, church girl” found her way out of her own chains, and stepped into the life God had planned for her all along. She invites you to come along.

What Do You Do When God Breaks Your Pinky Promise?

Have you ever felt abandoned by God? You played by the rules, but life is still really hard...and it doesn't seem fair. Join Julie as she reminds you of the central truths of who God is, and how much He loves you...even when it doesn't feel like it.

Gifts...They Aren't Just for Christmas

We all have gifts...and not just for birthdays and Christmas! Even better, your gift was designed especially for you. Not only that, God has a specific plan that calls for you to use it! In this presentation, Julie talks about spiritual gifts: what they are, why they are important, and what to do with yours! It's time to get to work!

I'm Tired of Waiting!

If you hate waiting, then you and Julie are in the same boat! Still, waiting has a very specific purpose and the waiting room can be an awesome place to be. In this presentation, Julie talks about God's waiting room and what to do while you're there!

Dear Young Mama...

I see you. I really do. Even through the maze of Legos, burp clothes, and dirty diapers. Being a mom is hard...and not losing yourself in the process is even harder. Julie shares her story of infertility and motherhood, all while giving encouragement to press on in this season of life!

Unleashing Your Creativity to Celebrate Christ

When we are so stuck in the hustle and bustle of everyday life, it's easy for us to lose our creative spirit. Reconnecting and finding your creative spirit whether it be through crafts, art or other practices, can be a powerful way to celebrate Christ and embrace your gifts. Julie shares her story of how creativity has transformed her life and practical ways to be more creative as a way to connect with Him.
